

|                                       |  |  |                |
|---------------------------------------|--|--|----------------|
| STATEIllinois                 | COUNTYBureau   | TOWN OR VICINITY<sup>m</sup>LaMoille VICINITY2 MILES SOUTH | 1s5p2d |
| INDEX NUMBERILL. 6-LAMO.V, 1- | MONUMENTSmith Farm HouseU.S. # 34  |  |                |
| REPRESENTED INNEGATIVE FILE       | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.Ill. 146  | History: Built about 1845 byH.K. Pickering, a builder for              |                |
| PUBLISHEDPHOTOGRAPHS              | J. Smith.Description: 1½ story frame cottage on brick  |  |                |
| PUBLISHEDDRAWINGS                 | basement. Oak logs dressed on 1 side form  |  |                |
| F.A. - 44                             | floor joists and girders. Walnut floor,walls are plastered on inside over handmadeoak laths. Partitions are walnut planks,now covered with wall paper.Present owner- Fred Meisel, LaMoille .Present occupant- Thomas Steel, farmer(over) |  |                |
| GPO 6-8369                            |  | HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY   |                |

References: Mrs. Edith Sheilds, LaMoille
Grandaughter, original owner

Author: Edward F. Jansson, 731 Melrose St.,
August 27, 1935 Chicago